Department of Environmental Affairs: DEA

On behalf of the Department of Environmental Affairs (DEA), it gives me great pleasure to provide a "Service Level" reference for Jade- Sky Project Management (JSPM). JSPM has been a service provider to the Department since 2012. The nature of the Department, requires interface with several reporting lines and we have found that JSPM has the agility to manage effective communication and delivery of outcomes beyond our expectation. DEA generally procures goods and services with very short lead times to delivery, coupled with budgetary constraints. JSPM continuously innovates, with a focus on solution orientation, ensuring that our requirements are met timeously and well within budget. The hands-on approach of the JSPM team speaks to their commitment to all tasks regardless of scope size. In my experience with similar companies, in respect of optimal conclusion of tasks, this woman-owned enterprise stands head and shoulders above its competitors.
